C'mon be serious. I really need to know what time it is.

Could we skip the philosophy lesson? Why can't you just answer the question?

What TIME is it, babysue?

It is time to PUT DOWN the magazine and start DOING something with your damn life!

It is time to TURN OFF YOUR COMPUTER and GO OUTSIDE.

Long, long ago I tried to tell you and your people what time it was...but nobody listened. Why should I try and tell you again now?

She loves me, she loves me not...

She...she... Gosh. I guess she must really HATE me or something.

Shes loves me, she loves me not...

You can stop torturing the flower. I do not love you now and I will never love you ever.

Do you honestly think that separating the petals from a flower is a rational way of reaching conclusions about potential romantic relationships?

Hey, maybe that's not such a BAD METHOD after all!

"Not of this world?" What the hell is THAT supposed to mean?

Just what do you think you are anyway? Some kind of a GOD or something?

Who are you really, baby sue?

I am not of this world.

I am not one of your people. I operate on a higher plane of existence than you and your kind.

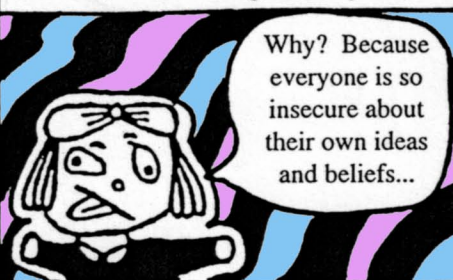

It is time to pray. Get on your knees.

:babysue:COMIX:

Wow that's so simple. Why can't people understand that?

Why is everyone so touchy about issues like race, sex, and religion, baby sue?

Why? Because everyone is so insecure about their own ideas and beliefs...

...that they just can't deal with it when anyone presents anything that contradicts their own narrow line of reasoning.

Because they're STUPID.
